Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of representation of Padmanabha Rao requesting that the period during which he was out of employment may be --- treated as furlough and that the claim of Government to the gratuity granted to him may thus be waived.

2 C. Padmanabha Rao was discharged from his service on the 9th December 1922 and reemployed in this office from the 20th July 1923, the period of his absence being 7 months and 10 days. He seems to have applied for gratuity as he had no expectation of being re-employed under the Government who were pleased to sanction a gratuity of Rs.175/- This amount the Comptroller now wants to be refunded as this official has been re-employed in this office, under Art. 353 Mysore Service Regulation. From the representation of Padmanabha Rao it will appear that he is not in favour of losing his former services and prays that the period during which he was unemployed may be treated as leave on furlough on average salary which he was entitled to If as prayed by Padmanabha Rao Government recognises his claim for leave to which he was entitled under article 209 A, M.S.R. Government has to pay him 6 x 35 or Rs.210/-. The amount of gratuity granted to him is only Rs.175/-. The prayer of Padmanabh

Padmanabha Rao is that this amount may be deducted out of it. As Padmanabha Rao is anxious that he should not lose his pension while he retires from service, I beg to recommend that his prayer for the grant of 6 months furlough may be favourably considered.

3. The case of Padmanabha Rao is similar to Messrs. N. Krishna Iyengar and O S. Ramakrishnaiya who were retired on account of retrenchment in this Department and in whose case Government was pleased to sanction a combined leave for one year and nine months and eight days each before retirement, (vide G. O. Nos. I.C. 4128-9/Geol. 19-22-31 of 2nd January 1923 and I.C. 4743-4/Geol. 58-22-4 of 30th January 1923, respectively.)

Sir,

I beg to bring the following few lines to your generous consideration and kind recommendation to Government.

I was granted a compensation gratuity of Rs.175/- or, five months pay after I was discharged, as a measure of retren -chment. I was relieved of my duties on the 9th of December 1922 and I am now re-employed from the 19th of July 1923. I have had no sort of employment or any earning during the above period of (practically) 8 months. Before retrenchment I was getting a pay of Rs.35/- and now also I am appointed on Rs.35/ An insurance premium of Rs.2/- (hitherto, and hereafter Rs. 3-8-0) is being deducted and I need not mention the hardship of leading a life within such limited means of Rs.30/- or 32/- I have to pay a rent of Rs.8/- for the house, and out of the balance I am at a loss to know what amount I am to pay towards the debt of Rs.175/- which has to be answered now. In this connection I may kindly be permitted to say that during the above period I was without employment, Government are also aware that I took up a certificate of approval and applied for certain areas for prospecting manganese etc., and I had also obtained an exploring license over a district. The whole of this show resulted in a net loss of over Rs.860/-. All these ended when manganese was reserved for Government. My living became hard with this additional debt of Rs.860/-. This fact I have reported to Mr. B. Jayaram, the then Director, so long back as January 1923 and on hearing this he promised me he would take me back into the department after obtaining Government sanction. Now, before I was allowed to take up service was asked to surrender all my licenses and certificates which

I have accordingly done. If I had been allowed to continue without being retrenched I would have had an increase in my pay. I have not only lost my chance but I have become junior to two who were juniors to me.

The advantage given to others who were also retrenched along with me, viz., the benefit of furlough for which I was also entitled was not extended to me. In this case I would have had not less than six months period as furlough.

Under the above circumstances I beg that suitable recommendations be made to the benign Government for a remission of the amount, for which act of kindness I will always be grateful. I do not wish to lose the hard earned-service of six long years.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
